BALLINGER TALKS CHANGES TO TAFT

Re-Organization of Reclamation Service Discussed at Beverly.

NEWELL WILL BE REMOVED

Plans for Service May be Materially Changed—Secretary Will Take a Long Trip Through the West—Not to Resign.

Beverly, Mass., July 5.—The re-organization of the reclamation service was discussed at a conference between President Taft and Secretary of the Interior Ballinger at a conference here tonight. Although no official information could be obtained, it was freely reported in Beverly tonight that the future plans for reclamation work do not include the retention of Fred H. Newell as the director of that service.

It is known that the Secretary long has regarded Mr. Newell as inimical to his plans for the reclamation service. Mr. Newell has openly opposed Mr. Ballinger and Mr. Ballinger in turn has publicly stated that he did not regard Mr. Newell as the man for the place occupied by him.

Just when and how Mr. Newell is going could not be learned. Secretary Ballinger left for Washington tonight. He will remain there a few days and then start on a long trip through the West, during which he will visit a number of Indian reserves and probably look over some of the reclamation projects now under way. His trip including a brief rest at his home in Seattle, will occupy from six weeks to two months.

When Secretary Ballinger alighted from the train here this morning, he was met by the usual crop of resignation rumors. "I am not a quitter," he said, "and never have been. I did not bring a resignation with me and will not leave one behind."

After he had lunched and conferred with the President, Mr. Ballinger was told of a later rumor that he would resign after the special Congressional Investigation Committee had made its report.

The only suggestion of a resignation that came in reply was the secretary's smile.

"I am in this fight and I am going to see it through," he said.

The recent withdrawals of water power sites, phosphate and petroleum lands by the President, comprising more than 87,000,000 acres in various States and the two Territories, were discussed with the President by Secretary Ballinger.

"In dealing with these lands," said the secretary, "we will continue the conservation policy in every essential detail. At the same time the President proposes that an opportunity for development shall be given."

Secretary Ballinger said tonight that he had prepared the instructions for the board of engineers appointed by the President to pass upon the irrigation projects which are to be completed under the $20,000,000 issue of certificates of indebtedness.

Mr. Ballinger made it plain that while the army engineers will have the say as to which projects shall be completed, the actual work of construction will be done by the field force of the reclamation service under the supervision of the director. General William L. Marshall, the engineer officer appointed last week as consulting engineer to the reclamation service, will, of course, be an important factor in the work.

In addition to Secretary Ballinger, the President had as callers this afternoon Paymaster General Whipple, of the army; Assistant Secretary of the Navy Beekman Winthrop, and Representative John Dwight, of New York, the Republican "whip" of the House.

Mr. Winthrop had a number of details of the Navy Department to take up with the President. Representative and Mrs. Dwight merely "dropped in" at Beverly.

President Taft's "real vacation" is to begin tomorrow. No more business engagements are to be made for him for a period of ten days.

LOCATE TEACHERS' SCHOOL.

Site of Old Rufus Williams University at Nashville, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., July 5.—At an adjourned meeting of the board of trustees of the George Peabody School for Teachers, recently endowed with a million dollars by the trustees of the Peabody Education Fund, Wyckliffe Rose was elected president of the school. It was decided to locate the institution on the site of the old Rufus Williams University, a negro school just southwest of the Vanderbilt University campus. No steps were taken in the matter of erection of buildings.

The board adopted resolutions in regard to the death of Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court.

Montgomery, Ala., July 5.—Thomas J. Spear and J. R. Josey, business men of Opp, Ala., were today added to the list of accused in the Shreve Jewelry swindle cases. The indictment charges them with implication in unlawful practices in the failure of the Union Mercantile Company of Greenville, Ala., part of the chain of Shreve stories. Both were released on bond.

TWO CONVENTION DEADLOCKS

Both Third and Fifth District Democrats Seem Hopelessly Tied Up at Goldsboro and Greensboro Over Nominations.

Advices up to an early hour this morning are to the effect that the Congressional Conventions of the Third and Fifth districts of North Carolina, both of which met yesterday at Goldsboro and Greensboro, respectively, are apparently hopelessly tied up over their respective nominations, Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, leading in the Third and Major Charles Manly Stedman leading three other candidates in the Fifth. Both conventions are in sessions all night with no prospect of a nomination before today.

At Greensboro.

Greensboro, N. C., July 5.—At 11:15 on the 33rd ballot the vote in the Fifth District Congressional Convention in session in this city, was: Stedman 145.99, Jones 102.39; Mebane 65.31; Royster 93.63. The balloting began at 5:30 this afternoon and with the exception of a short recess for supper the supporters of the four candidates have been steadily at their post of duty. There has been but little change so far. Stedman and Jones have lost about two votes each, these going to Mebane on the second ballot. The supporters of the candidates are confident of winning ultimately, some declaring that they will remain here until August, if necessary, to insure the nomination of their favorite.

It is not thought that any candidate will be nominated before tomorrow. The convention will likely be in session all night. E. S. Parker, of Graham, is chairman. It is thought that the contest in the end will be between Stedman and Jones, with the chances in favor of the former.

Afternoon and Preliminaries.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 5.—Amid wild yells and shouts and "there's a hot time in old Goldsboro tonight" for 73 consecutive ballots, the balloting of the delegates of the Democratic nominating convention at 9 o'clock is still unchanged, and is as follows: Hood 88.17; Faison, 54.36; Thomas, 38.32; Duffy, 32.65; Robinson 11.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon the convention was called to order in the Messenger Opera House by Mr. W. L. Hill, chairman of the district executive committee. The roll of counties was called by Secretary T. C. Whitaker, and all these being represented and no contests reported, the chairman asked Mr. A. D. Ward, of Craven, to act as temporary chairman. Immediately upon Mr. Ward's taking the chair Mr. Will Webb, of Carteret, nominated Mr. W. T. Dortch as permanent chairman. This precipitated an animated controversy for a few moments, which, however, was speedily settled by Mr. Dortch, who asked that his name be withdrawn and that Mr. Ward be made permanent chairman. This graceful solution of what seemed to be a lowering storm, was accepted by Mr. Webb, who put the motion and Mr. Ward was unanimously elected.

The committee on platform and resolutions was dispensed with, and nominations were declared in order.

The roll of counties was called, in alphabetical order, Carteret yielding to Wayne, and Mr. J. L. Barham placed in nomination Hon. Geo. E. Hood in graceful and enthusiastic language that met with hearty response from that gentleman's adherents.

Next Craven, through Col. J. A. Bryan, always earnest and forceful of speech, placed Hon. C. R. Thomas in nomination. Duplin in a splendid speech of fervid eloquence by Mr. W L. Hill, placed its favorite son, Dr. John M. Faison, before the convention. In a speech never surpassed for beauty of thought, diction and eloquent encomium, Mr. Walter Thompson, of Onslow, nominated Hon. Rodolph Duffy, and in his characteristic dignified zeal and captivating manner of speech, Mr. Geo. C. Royall, presented the name of Col. Jos. E. Robinson. This closed the nominations, and after a number of eloquent speeches were indulged in the roll call of counties for balloting was called, and the first ballot resulted as follows: Hood 88.17; Faison 54.36; Thomas 38.32; Duffy 32.65; Robinson 11.

At this hour the convention is still in session after several unsuccessful ballots for adjournment.

At 10 O'clock.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 5.—At 10 o'clock the delegates are still in a deadlock. The 357th ballot stood: Hood 98.17, Faison 48.68, Duffy 32.65, Thomas 47.07. At times the convention is in wild confusion, but so far the utmost good feeling prevails. Nothing definite is in sight at this hour.

Dark Horses Short-Lived.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 6.—(1:15 A. M.) —At this hour the Third District convention is still tied up and will likely reach no nomination before morning. Over 400 ballots have now been taken, the last standing Hood 82.23, Duffy 25.98, Thomas 42.26, Faison 50.53, Robinson 24. Between the 300th and 400th ballot, two dark horses were run in but they were short lived. A. D. Ward and Larry I. Moore, former solicitor, received a few votes on a few ballots but the great majority of the convention declined to abandon their favorites. There has been much coquetting and see-sawing back and forth, but in the main the friends of the candidates this morning are as resolute as ever.

Cincinnati, July 5.—The National Baseball Commission today held Pitcher W. A. Foxen, of the Philadelphia National League team, to be ineligible until he settles a claim made by the Jersey City club for salary advanced to him when he was a member of that club.

ROOSEVELT SHOWS HAND IN POLITICS

Supports Poindexter and Takes Stand Against Secretary Ballinger.

ENDORSES HIM FOR SENATE

The Colonel's Attitude Toward Taft Administration Made Plain—Conference at Sagamore Hill. Situation in West.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 5.—Theodore Roosevelt will support Representative Miles Poindexter, the Washington State insurgent for the United States Senate as opposed to Senator Piles and Secretary Ballinger.

Theodore Roosevelt made it clear today, not by direct statement, but by implication so strong that it admits of no misinterpretation, that he will support Representative Miles Poindexter in his fight for a seat in the United States Senate from the State of Washington. They had luncheon together and a conference at Sagamore Hill today and Mr. Poindexter departed jubilant.

In endorsing Poindexter for the Senate, Col. Roosevelt places himself squarely in opposition to Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior, whom President Taft has so warmly defended; and it is the only stand he has taken bearing directly or indirectly on the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Mr. Poindexter is opposed to Secretary Ballinger from first to last and hopes to unseat Senator Piles, of Washington, who seeks another term and who has Secretary Ballinger's support. The Secretary and Mr. Poindexter are from the same Seattle district.

After the conference Mr. Poindexter said: "I found Colonel Roosevelt unchanged. He is just the same as ever. He and I have worked together always and he assured me that we always would work together. I am delighted with the result of the visit."

Col. Roosevelt spoke of his talk with Mr. Poindexter in a manner which showed plainly the pleasure which the meeting had given him. This is what he had to say:

"Representative Poindexter and I went over the political situation in the West. He assured me that he was in hearty sympathy with my conservation policy.

"Mr. Poindexter is a candidate for the United States Senate and is politically opposed to that wing of the party headed by Mr. Ballinger, the Secretary of the Interior."

That was all the colonel wanted to have put in quotation marks. What he said otherwise made it quite clear that he had given assurance to Mr. Poindexter that he would support him in his attempt to unseat Senator Piles.

Coincidently Secretary Ballinger and President Taft had a conference at Beverly today in which they discussed the reclamation service. There Mr. Ballinger denied with emphasis a rumor that he was to resign. "I am not a quitter and never have been," he said.

Miles Poindexter is an out and out insurgent whom the people of the State of Washington elected on a radical platform. He has been a firm supporter of Roosevelt policies, especially as relate to conservation of National resources.

At luncheon with the colonel they discussed the Ballinger-Pinchot occurrence in detail in the course of their talk on the political status of the Northwest.

While the general opinion here is that Col. Roosevelt is "still feeling his way" as regards his ultimate attitude toward the Taft administration, his stand today is considered the most striking indication of his present frame of mind. And that he will still fight hard for the conservation movement which he inaugurated while in office he made plain to interviewers when Mr. Poindexter had gone.

There have been two important "insurgent conferences" at Sagamore Hill since the colonel's return; but more are coming. One of the most potential of these is arranged for Thursday next. On that day five of the best known and weightiest of the Insurgents are coming to talk with the ex-President, but Mr. Roosevelt declined today to give out their names.

Gov. Hughes is expected here either Thursday night or Friday morning for the long expected conference on New York State politics.

Ballinger Can't Believe It.

Providence, R. I., July 5.—Secretary Ballinger was interviewed while passing through this city bound for Washington tonight, declared that he did not believe that Theodore Roosevelt would support Miles Poindexter for the Senate.

He added: "I do not care anyway, for I'm not in politics. I will tell you this, though, I don't believe that the State of Washington will ever send Miles Poindexter to the United States Senate."

New Orleans, July 5.—The steamer Ravn, of the Norwegian register, and under charter of the United Fruit Company which went aground on the Chincorro reefs off the coast of Yucatan, ten days ago, has been floated according to cable advices received by the fruit company here today. Cery little damage was sustained by the steamer.

JUDGE PRITCHARD AT DURHAM

Advocates Training of Negro on Farm As Solution of High Prices—Opening of Negro Training School Yesterday.

Durham, N. C., July 5.—Advocating the early agricultural training of the negro in the belief that it would prove of infinite value to the morals of the colored race, and the return of the negro to the farm as a solution largely of the question of the present high cost of living, United States Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Asheville, N. C., made the opening address of the Summer course of the National Religious Training School and Chautauqua for the colored race here today.

Stating that the opening of this school filled a much needed want Judge Pritchard declared that the colored man was essentially the leader of his race and it was through him that his people might be most effectively reached. Only full justice here and elsewhere, he said, could be done the negro by remembering that he had come fresh from slavery, where dependence upon masters had rendered him ambitionless, without education or property.

"The colored man is a citizen of the country," he continued, "and while he enjoys all the rights and immunities of citizenship, he must rely upon himself if he would accomplish the best things in our citizenship. I am thankful to say that there has never been a time since emancipation when a majority of the white people of the South were not friendly to the negro so far as his welfare as a citizen is concerned."

Judge Pritchard advised the colored people to seek the farms. He said one found less racial antagonism in the rural districts. His confident belief was that no class of man was being better treated than the farmers and he declared that immigration back to the farm would eliminate much of the criminal element that cursed the entire race.

(Special Star Teelgram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 5.—In the U. S. District Court here today H. F. Seawell, district attorney, announced the death of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court and suggested to the court, Judge H. G. Connor, presiding, that adjournment be taken for the day out of respect ofr the memory of the great jurist whose able and faithful services for 22 years as Chief Justice has caused not only the American people, but the civilized world to become his debtor. Judge Connor made the order suggested.

ANSONVILLE DEPOT.

Finally Settled by Commissioners Favorable to Railroad Company.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 5.—The final order of the Corporation Commission overruling all exceptions to the Commission order approving the out-of-town site for the Ansonville depot on the Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad, was signed today disposing of the whole matter in favor of the railroad company, holding that the grade and other engineering problems necessitate the location beyond the corporate limits. This is the case in which J. A. Lockhart a few days ago as counsel for citizens fighting for location of the station in town, made a sensational speech denouncing the commissioners most bitterly.

BRUTAL TRAGEDY STIRS ASHEVILLE

Man With Record For Bloodshed Shoots and Brains City Employe.

TROUBLE OF LONG STANDING

Woman Said to be at Bottom of Bad Feeling—Threats of Lynching Free Made—Safe in Jail.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 5.—James B. Allison, former night watchman, after shooting five times at Floyd McGhee, driver of the city patrol wagon, shortly after 2 o'clock today within a stone's throw of the city hall, picked up a two pound sledge hammer and crushed the skull of the dying man.

This makes Allison's fourth life at least that he has taken on previous occasions, being successful in escaping punishment. Two are negroes and two white men. One was an engineer named Roberts, of Charlotte, whom he had under arrest and in this he claimed self defense.

According to witnesses McGhee was quietly sitting in a shoe shop when a hand was thrust through a door and Allison opened fire. McGhee, defenseless, reeled into the adjoining blacksmith shop and fell near the anvil and Allison picked up the hammer and completed his deadly work. The trouble seems to be of some standing and involves a woman. McGhee had been laid off a city job a week ago, awaiting an investigation before the Police Commission in which Allison is said to have been the complainant. McGhee is a married man and has a living wife and children. The whole town is shocked. From certain quarters have come rumblings of lynching but Buncombe's jail is regarded as safe against such an emergency. Allison surrendered amid cries of "Lynch him."

Another Account.

Asheville, N. C., July 5.—Stealthily approaching his victim from the rear, J. B. Allison, 45, a former janitor at the city hall, fired five shots into the body of F. M. McGhee, driver of the city patrol wagon, this afternoon, every bullet taking effect. After his victim had fallen Allison beat out the former's brains with a ten-pound hammer. Allison surrendered and is now in jail.

Indignation runs high among the citizenship and tonight there is some talk of lynching. Acting on persistent rumors, the sheriff tonight requested the local company of militia, which had been out on drill practice, to stay out until midnight.

The killing is, according to the prisoner's statement, the outcome of an old quarrel concerning a woman. McGhee was standing at the door of a livery stable when Allison, without any warning, slipped up from behind and fired point blank at McGhee. The deceased was 33 years old and leaves a widow.

Allison has a record of having killed three men and in each case was acquitted on the ground of self-defense.

AFFRAY IN WASHINGTON.

Two Negroes Engaged in Serious Altercation There Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., July 5.—Considerable excitement was created among the colored population on Telfair street this city, last night about 10 o'clock, when two colored men by the name of Benjamin Freeman and William Griffin, became involved in an altercation which ended in a serious cutting affray. It seems that Griffin had been out of town for some time and returning last night found Freeman in his home. Freeman's presence aroused Griffin's anger and he drew his knife and proceeded to carve up the person of Freeman to suit the queen's taste. Freeman's left arm was cut nearly off, the knife severing two of the triceps and one of the biceps in his arm. He was also stabbed in the back and suffered a number of surface cuts on the body. Dr. J. C. Rodman sewed up his wounds and rendered all medical aid necessary. Griffin was arrested this morning and locked in jail. He will be given a hearing as soon as Freeman's condition improves enough for him to appear in court.

AGAINST FIGHT PICTURES.

May Stop Them in Baltimore to Prevent Rioting.

Baltimore, July 5.—Backed by the authority of the board of police commissioners, Marshall Farnan will request Mayor Mahoot to prohibit the proposed exhibition in Baltimore of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. The Mayor says that with formal complaint before him he will stop the pictures.

The action by the police commissioners was taken this morning, following the submission by Marshall Farnan of reports showing the widespread rioting all over the country including Baltimore, during last night and the frequent clashes between whites and blacks.

Cincinnati, July 5.—Mayod Schwab said today he will not allow the Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures to be shown in his city. He declared the pictures would promote race hatred and for that reason he would bar them.

JOYNER SPOKE TO EDUCATORS

Development of Industrial Education Theme of North Carolinian— Address to National Education Association.

Boston, July 5.—Development of industrial education, and of moral education, the peace and public health movements, and restraint of the tendency toward otiosity were advocated by James J. Joyner, of Raleigh, N. C., president of the National Educational Association, in his annual address to the association tonight.

In touching on industrial education, he said: "One logical demand of democracy is a system of education that shall provide equality of educational opportunity for all. Out of this logical demand has grown the demand for industrial or vocational education."

"It has its dangers," President Joyner said. "In making our schools minister to the new needs of men we must not fail to make them continue to minister to the eternal, the common, the universal needs of men arising from their common nature. It would be a fatal blunder to permit in our system of American education the establishment and maintenance of separate systems of vocational or trade schools. Such a separation would prove a disintegrating force. For the elevation of the industrial masses to their proper social and civic plane in a democracy you must send into the industries men trained not only to skilful work, but educated also to think, to dream, to feel, to love, to read, to lift. You cannot measure the greatest worth of a man in our democracy by a money-mad world's tapeline of dollars and cents."

In regard to the otiose tendency, President Joyner said that it was noticeable in elementary, secondary and college education, and threatened, if unchecked, to end "in an education of gush and dissipation." He suggested that a fault too common was that of making the way too easy for the pupil.

"May we not expect from such made-easy and rapid transit methods," he continued, "a crop of intellectually spoiled children, flabby of mind, weak of will, superficial in character, inaccurate in scholarship, doing nothing well except what they like to do? Should not they be trained to do well whatever it is their duty to do, and to find a stimulus of interest in tasks unpleasant in the very joy of mastering them?

"A tendency to otiosity is noticeable and alarming in college and university education. It is attributable in part perhaps to previous training, but more to the influence of wealth and luxury of fraternity life, athletics and 'soft' elective courses, which offer temptations to ease and idleness that are well nigh irresistible to young men of unformed character and unfixed habits.

In discussing moral education, President Joyner said that as character always determined the use to which knowledge and training were put, its development was of prime importance in education. Moral instruction, he said, should be given in all schools by precept, example and systematic training. "It should be based, I believe, upon the fundamental teachings of the Book of Books, and the open Bible, for moral and not secterian instruction, should have its place in every public school."

"The spirit of altruism so manifest in American life," said the speaker turning to his next topic, "is becoming more and more potent in American education. Consecration of individual talent and power, of intellectual, moral and spiritual wealth of every sort, to the uplift of all shall at last become the dominant dictrine in every American school."

The peace movement, he said, was the natural product of this spirit of democracy and altruism. Education must cultivate those virtues which make for peace—love, mercy, justice, recognition of the rights of others. The public health movement, he said, was another product of these same conditions, and he pointed to the fact that knowledge and power are of little avail if physical vigor be lost through disease.

In concluding his address, President Joyner said:

"Teachers of America, go forth to your work of lifting humanity into finger touch with the Almighty, unawed by fear, unrestrained by pessimism, sustained by faith in the holiness of your mission, assured that you hold the strategic point in education, which is and ever must be the strategic point in civilization."

TO BAR FIGHT PICTURES.

Move to Keep Them Out of District of Columbia—Fear Riots.

Washington, July 5.—Moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight might be barred from the District of Columbia. Police Chief Sylvester has announced that he will do his utmost to prevent the films from being shown here. He fears a repetition of the race riots which took place on the streets yesterday when it became known that the negro had won.

BERTIE DEMOCRATS FOR FOLK.

Endorsed Missourian for Presidency—County Convention.

Raleigh, N. C., July 5.—The Democratic County Convention of Bertie county, N. C., has endorsed Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, for the Democratic nomination for President. His father was Henry B. Folk, of Tennessee, was a native of Bertie county, leaving there when he was twenty-one years old.

JEFFRIES LEAVES SCENE OF DEFEAT

Loser of Battle With Negro Sorrowfully Journeys Back to Ranch.

SHRINKS FROM THE PUBLIC

Thousands of Fight Followers Still Crowd Reno—Jeffries Nervous Before the Fight—Californian Lost $35,000.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—James J. Jeffries, whose great ring career came to a pitiful end and when he fell before Champion Jack Johnson, yesterday, left the scene of his defeat tonight for his alfalfa ranch in Southern California. There in the quiet of his fields he will try to forget. In the meantime he will spend a few days in San Francisco on the way, straightening out his business affairs.

The Jeffries car was hitched to the regular evening train. He motored into Reno from his camp at Moana Springs with Sam Berger and other members of his party an hour before train time and hid himself as soon as possible from the curious gaze of the crowd that still thronged the streets.

In his every stumbling movement, in his bowed head, in the depths of his sombre eyes, in the nervous rubbing of his swollen face and blackened eyes, in his almost timid shrinking from the public, Jeffries showed that his defeat had dealt him a terrible blow.

There was silence as he passed through the streets. Men rushed from the gambling tables to gaze, but no word of taunt or derision was thrown at him. Those who saw that fight feel that Jeffries did his best.

As Jeffries' train started West, somewhere in the desert to the east a hilarious band of negroes was journeying to Chicago with Jack Johnson, with the banner of the world's champion floating from the car window.

Special trains left Reno all last night and all day trying to get 10,000 visitors back home. Thousands stood for hours grips in hand, waiting to clamber into the first available train. Thousands gave it up and decided to wait for lighter traffic.

As a consequence the gambling houses are running full blast tonight and the main street presented he aspect of a frontier mining camp at the height of a gold strike.

A determined effort was made by losers in the fight betting to recoup losses. At last accounts, there were many who will have to wire home for money. The financial condition of hundreds, hit by the fight and the games is desperate.

An air of great weariness pervaded the crowds today. The restaurants were recovering from the famine. Freight trains were alive with clinging hoboes and thieves, sent out of town by the State police. The bar rooms were filled with listless, thirsty groups. The pool room men were settling up their bets.

The betting at Tom Corbett's official pool room was not as heavy as had been expected. Corbett, however, declared himself satisfied. The lack of Johnson money was a surprise.

The largest individual loss on record in the pool room was that suffered by Clarence Berry, a California oil operator. He bet $35,000 on Jeffries.

Among the sporting men left there is not a dissenting opinion as to the justice to the fight's ending. Many have nothing but their return tickets to show for their judgment on the outcome, but no one says that Jeffries ever had a chance with the negro after the fight began.

Johnson's repartee and coolness in the ring, the terrible power of his punches, his marvelous judgment of distance and his almost uncanny quickness and boxing skill, are the talk of the town. Men are living the fight over round by round. As long as they live they never will forget the pitiful aspect of Jeffries at the mercy of the black panther in the fifteenth round.

"What was the matter with Jeffries?" some asked. A well known sporting authority, who talked with Jeffries this morning answered this question: "He was whipped before he left Moana Springs for the ring side," said this man. "He felt that he was to fall before the negro, and it was too much for him to face. As the hour approached, his nervous condition became such that his mind lost all control over his body. It began Saturday and indicated itself in various ways.

"Sunday night he did not sleep a wink, but walked about his room and looked out of the windows. Yesterday morning he ate a little breakfast. When he sat in the corner in the ring, Choynski, as he wrapped his hands, exclaimed: 'Why, Jim your hands are as cold as ice and clammy.' His seconds thought even then that he was only a little nervous, and that he would get over it in the fight.

"When I asked him today what he remembered from the time he entered the ring he replied: 'Well, I remember sitting in the corner and getting up and not being able to get my arms up right. I really don't remember much about what I did.'"

A New Yorker who came to see the fight was taken ill and operated on while the fight was going on. When Luyster was in his old-time form Monday morning and shut out the heavy hitting Sailors without a single hit. Had he received perfect support he would have been entitled to a record equalled only by seven men in the history of professional baseball—pitching nine innings without allowing an opponent to reach first base. He did not give a base on balls, hit a batsman, nor allow a solitary bingle. It was certainly Luyster's day to be a hero as he got two hits and fielded his position brilliantly, throwing out six men. His second safety was a two-bagger to right.

RUMBLINGS.

"Will someone kindly tell me?"
How under Heaven the Sailors lost.

Kluttz and Burke each got a brace of swats apiece.

Hawkins was bingling 'em some; two doubles ain't bad at all.

Sans details, speculation is rife as to the whys and wherefores.

The Sailors have only played three errorless games since the season started.

Umpire Davis has been let out by the league management. He is succeeded by Whitney, a Bostonian.

The Red Birds have recently taken on a new first-sacker named Grubbs, and Rocky Mount a high-brow infielder named Arthur.

Another no-hit luminary entered the solar system when Luyster skunked the Sailors on Monday without granting them the semblance of a bingle.

The telegraphic report says "The Highlanders won out by superior pinch hitting," etc. They surely must have pinch hit altogether, and done nothing else.

It appeared, at first, as if the Highlanders had simply Jackjohnsoned us, but we can't conceive, from the box score, how it all happened. Unlike Jeff, though, we've got another try coming to us today.

Rube didn't allow but five hits, to Boyle's ten, and there were only two errors behind the former, one of which he made himself, and yet the game was lost in some manner unbeknownst to us.

ERRORS COST GIANTS GAME

Slow Work in Left Field—Outfielder Pitched Fine Game Allowing But Four Hits—How Runs Came.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 5.—The left fielder's slow work lost the third game of this series for the Giants. Goldsboro scored in the first inning on a walk, a sacrifice, and a hit. In the third Wilson tied the score. From this time until the tenth inning none could cross home plate. In the tenth Hearne doubled to left and went to third on a fielder's choice and scored on Westlake's single. Although Hearne was wild he was very effective with men on bases. Evans, an outfielder, pitched a beautiful game for Goldsboro, walking no one and allowing only four hits in six innings.

INDOOR BASEBALL POPULAR.

Interesting Contest at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

Indoor league baseball is proving one of the most attractive features at the Y. M. C. A. during the Summer and each Tuesday and Thursday nights the Juniors play ball that is more than worth the spectators' time to witness. Last night the Giants, captained by Norman Davis, were very much handicapped on account of illness of some of their crack players, but they managed to eke out a victory from the Cubs by tieing and then bringing in the winning run in the 11th inning, the score being 15 to 14. Batteries: Giants, Davis and Smith; Cubs, Lewis and Boone. During the coming week a league will be organized in the Senior Department and these games will be open to the public.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

Business Men Called to Hear Proposition of the Terry Engine Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.—What It Means to City.

For the purpose of giving the members an opportunity to hear a business proposition from Mr. George H. Terry, of the Terry Engine Company, Brooklyn, N. Y., manufacturers of marine engines, who is thinking of moving his plant to Wilmington if the proper support and encouragement is given, President Chas. N. Evans and Secretary J. A. McGeachy, of the Wilmington Commercial Club, yesterday issued a call for a meeting of the organization to be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 8:30 o'clock, and it is earnestly desired that every business man in Wilmington, whether a member of the club, or even the Chamber of Commerce, be present.

Mr. Terry, who has frequently visited this city, has recently been engaged in installing an engine, made by his company, for the pilot boats at Southport. His firm has been established for five years and has a large trade. He proposes to move his entire plant to Wilmington if given the proper support by the business community.

It was stated yesterday that it is now conceded that the inland waterways route will go across from Wrightsville to the Orton Plantation, which, it is said, will mean a saving of 27 miles over the proposed route by Scott's Hill, and the advantages to Wilmington will be just as great. The opening of the waterways route will bring a great many motor boats and pleasure craft to this section which makes the removal of a large plant like that of the Terry Company especially desirable. Mr. Terry states that his company would erect a marine railway sufficient in size to take care of boats the size of the Clyde Line steamers. By having its plant here the company would have an advantage over Brooklyn in the matter of building new boats as it would be able to secure the cypress in this section.

Houston, Tex., July 5.—At Rodini, near Corsicana yesterday, a negro entered the home of Hub Bailey, a merchant and brandishing a knife, threatened a criminal assault upon Mrs. Bailey, a bride of three months, who grappled with him, securing the weapon and forcing the negro to take flight. Posses caught the negro today in Richland Creek bottom and after he was identified he was hanged to a tree nearby.

Norfolk, Va., July 5.—Capt. John G. Wallace, aged 71 years, prominent as a successful Norfolk county trucker and large land owner, was found dead in bed early today at his home near Wallaceton.

RAILROADERS LOST BY ERRORS

Eight Credited to Railroaders in Close Game at Raleigh Yesterday—Otherwise a Splendid Game. The Score.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 5.—Three errors by the Railroaders, three hits and a couple of stolen bases by Raleigh in the third inning, gave the Red Birds five runs and another bunch of six hits and a stolen base in the fourth inning gave five more runs that distanced the Railroaders beyond the possibility of redemption in an otherwise pretty and close game.

FOOTBALL IS DENOUNCED.

Sport That Destroys American Youth Says Dr. Jordan.

Boston, July 5.—Denouncing college football as a combination of pure brutality and pugilism that apealed to the love of the sordid, David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University, led in the discussion that followed a report made today by the committee on moral education in public schools to the National council of the National Education Association, in convention here. He added.

"Some day the college presidents and school heads of this country will perhaps be called cowardly and brutal because they did not put a stop to the dangers of football, a sport that destroys the best there is in American youth."

The game, he continued, aroused the same love of the sordid that focussed the interest of the country in "a ring away out in far Nevada, where a black man and a white man were pounding each other yesterday."

President Jordan favored the substitution of the English game of Rugby.

At most of the 18 departmental meetings of the convention today there was at least one advocate of the introduction of industrial training and agriculture in the secondary schools.

A memorial address upon the life and work of Dr. William Torrey Harris, late United States Commissioner of Education, was delivered by James M. Greenwood, of Kansas City, Mo.

SANE FOURTH OF JULY.

Natal Day Observance Pleased the Civic Association.

Washington, July 5.—Inspired by the success of the "safe and sane" Fourth of July this year, the American Civic Association, which has taken a leading part in the crusade against the Fourth of firecrackers, burnt features and plasters, announce that it "will exert its efforts for greater and more positive results for 1911."

In a statement made today, over the signature of its president, J. Horace McFarland, and its secretary, Richard B. Watrous, the association expresses the opinion that "the American people never will return to the noisy and dangerous Fourth, but will be in the years to come more insistent than ever before in demanding that the use of explosives on the Fourth of July be prohibited altogether and that the laws enacted be strictly enforced. The association recommends that far in advance of next year's anniversary, adequate provision be made for public exercises and entertainment events that will insure an enthusiastic observance of the day and make it one of even greater pleasure to the youth of the Nation than ever before."

CURTISS HAD ACCIDENT.

Second Flight at Atlantic City Was Successful.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 5.—Glenn H. Curtiss made an eight minute flight directly over the ocean at 6:38 tonight. The flight was entirely successful, his trip including a flight along the entire front of the city, about a mile off shore and 1,500 feet above the ocean.

The successful flight was the second one attempted, the first resulting in a mishap that nearly sent Curtiss into the ocean. While he was attempting to make a turn from the beach to go to sea an air eddy caught the plane and dropped it within ten feet of the breakers .Curtiss made a quick turn and drove his machine on the beach with such force that a wood standard alongside his seat was snapped. The drop in the air and the jar as he struck the beach unseated Curtiss and might have thrown him out but for new braces built across his shoulders and lashed to the machine today.

COTTON SEED CRUSHERS

Nearly 200 Representative Mill Men at Beach for Annual Convention. Special Train From Columbia, S. C., Last Night.

The annual meetings of the North and South Carolina Cotton Seed Crushers' Associations, which will be held at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, today and tomorrow, will be attended by some 200 representative cotton seed oil mill men of the Carolinas, a majority of whom have already arrived and are guests at the Seashore and Tarrymoore Hotels. It is expected that this will be the greatest meeting in the history of the organizations.

A majority of the South Carolina delegation arrived at 9 o'clock last night on a special train over the Atlantic Coast Line, from Columbia and consisted of two coaches and baggage car. Faster time was made than was expected, the train arriving 10 minutes earlier than scheduled to arrive. Mr. E. C. Cohen, of this city, traveling passenger agent, was in charge of the train and was tireless in his efforts to make the journey of the mill men and their family a pleasant one. And he succeeded admirably. There were 88 in the party. A short stop was made at Florence at 5:23 for supper. Mr. B. F. Taylor, of Columbia, S. C., the popular and energetic secretary and treasurer of the organization, personally conducted the party and also assisted the traveling agent in looking after the comfort of the passengers. The party was taken directly to Wrightville Beach on a two-car special suburban train. Most of the party is quartered at the Seashore Hotel, but a number were unable to secure accommodations there and went to Tarrymoore. There are 106 oil mills in South Carolina and practically every one will be represented at the meeting. The North Carolina mills will also be well represented, some 40 or 50 having arrived yesterday and last night.

The first session will be held at 10 o'clock this morning in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel, being called to order by the president of the South Carolina organization, Mr. H. L. Todd, of Clinton, S. C. The association will hear an address from Judge Henry C. Hammond, of Augusta, Ga., and Hon. E. J. Watson, of Columbia, S. C., Commissioner of Agriculture of South Carolina, after which the president will deliver his annual message and the report of the secretary and treasurer will be received. This will be followed by a business session. It had not been determined last night whether or not an afternoon session would be held. At the meeting tomorrow morning addresses will be delivered by Dr. B. W. Kilgore, of Raleigh, State Chemist for North Carolina, and Mr. W. A. Reynolds, of Charlotte. This will be followed by a business session, the feature of which will be the election of officers. The convention will adjourn with this session.

Mr. Taylor stated last night that the party would take a trip on the steamer Wilmington, but that the day had not been decided upon. The trip will either be taken this afternoon or tomorrow afternoon.

A feature of the meeting will be the estimate of the cotton crop to be made as in former years. The estimates made by the South Carolina Association have always been very close to the actual crop condition.

New York, July 5.—William Boland, a boyish crook, credited by the police with being one of the cleverest forgers in the East, was sentenced here today to a term of not more than ten years nor less than five years in Sing Sing prison. Though only 22 years old Boland was leader of a band which operated not only in New York but in Chicago, Boston, New Haven, Providence, Syracuse and other cities.

Bristol, Tenn., July 5.—The attending physicians report Congressman W. P. Brownlow's condition as but slightly changed tonight. He is gradually sinking. Mr. Brownlow represents the first district of Tennessee and is ill at Johnson City.

Wednesday, July 6th, 1910.

The bull-fights of the Mexicans and the cock-fights of the Filipinos are refined sports compared with the American prize fights.

"To be unpopular, tell the truth," says the Jacksonville Times-Union's sunshine philosopher. To tell the whole truth about yourself surely will make you unpopular. Some people maintain popularity by remaining silent when truth is liable to do damage. Evasion is more often depended upon than prevarication.

Perhaps the Republican party will realize some day that there was wisdom in the reciprocity policy which originated with the late James G. Blaine, to be practically abandoned by his party after his death. It is now believed that our trade with Canada can be restored only through means of the reciprocal tariff relations which Mr. Blaine foresaw would be beneficial to the commercial interests of this country.

Already we hear of mishaps to airships and accidents to aviators, many of whom have been killed. The news of such accidents is now taking its place along with the news about automobile tragedies. Sooner or later, when aeroplanes become more numerous, we will be reading about horrible mid-air collisions in which the aeroplane possibly may vie with the automobile, the steamship and the railroad train as a factor for destroying human life.

The papers are now publishing a story to the effect that a beautiful woman, Augusta Schichanowska, was a sweetheart of Dr. Cook, the Arctic explorer, who met her in the frozen North, but that he deceived her and married another, the sequel being that she was driven to insanity and is now confined in a madhouse at Seattle. In the story it is further stated that Dr. Cook is elusive and is not likely to appear and tell his love affair. It is all quite interesting, but who knows but what Dr. Cook in his hiding place has gone to romancing again?

Says the Charlotte Observer: "It is only fitting that North Carolina, which has the leading mountain resort of the Southern States, should expect soon to have in Wrightsville Beach, with its handsome new steel pier, the leading coast resort also." Wrightsville Beach already is the South's leading and most attractive seaside resort. It beats all of them in its natural attractions, its improvements and its preparations for taking care of guests, and it is said to be the only seaside resort that has neither flies nor mosquitoes. Last year 60,000 people came from abroad to enjoy the delights of Wrightsville Beach and the probability is that the guests this season will exceed that.

The county of Durham evidently aims at making the other counties of the State envious of its representation in the General Assembly. The Democracy of Durham has nominated General Julian S. Carr for the House of Representatives and it is gratifying to learn that the General has accepted. It is a sacrifice for such men as General Carr to enter into politics in a small way but it is to his credit that he feels like it is his duty to serve the Democratic party as well as his State. No political lines should be observed in Durham when such a representative man as General Carr can be sent to the General Assembly. The Democrats and Republicans should make it unanimous. This distinguished North Carolinian is one of the State's truest and best men and any county and any party could trust him either at Raleigh or Washington.

TAR HEEL ORATORS ABROAD.

Governor W. W. Kitchin, of North Carolina, took care of the Old North State in a magnificent way at Boston on Independence Day when he delivered an address before the National Educational Association. Telegraphic news from Boston says it was a North Carolina Day and high tribute was paid to our Governor for the display of his great oratorical powers, while his speech was pronounced one of great power and was punctuated by "explosion after explosion of spontaneous cheering."

The fact is, the North Carolina Governor made a magnificent impression upon the cultured throng which listened to him, and his address certainly was one well calculated to increase his reputation as a representative statesman of the South. The compliment which Governor Kitchin received was all the more flattering because of the fact that the other speakers were President Taft, Governor Draper, of Massachusetts, Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, and Mr. Blair, State Superintendent of Public Instruction for Illinois. The addresses were delivered before a cultivated and discriminating audience composed of teachers and eminent educators, and it was conceded, according to the Boston dispatches, that Governor Kitchin's "powerful speech won for him the great laurels of the occasion."

Another North Carolinian who made a big reputation for himself was State Senator Whitehead Kluttz, of Salisbury, who delivered an address at the famous auditorium at Asbury Park, N. J., July 4th. A dispatch says Mr. Kluttz "leaped into national fame" on account of his great speech and the audience was so appreciative that it gave three cheers for "the South's brilliant young orator." It is a good thing for North Carolina to send her able men to the North, for it gives our State a reputation that we do not appreciate as fully at home as we should.

We have never heard the gifted Kluttz deliver an address but we have heard of him, and it is safe to say that he is one of the State's coming men. We have heard Governor Kitchin speak, and, after reading his Boston speech, we can say that the cultivated and patriotic Bostonians had every reason to award him the palm over all the other speakers. The Star does not give away a secret when it says that Governor Kitchin last November, when he was in Wilmington with President Taft, laid it all over the President as a man of fine presence and as a speaker from all standpoints.

The Europeans will be surprised to observe that Col. Roosevelt has failed to carry New York since he came home.

The Baltimore American declares that Tammany will fight ballot reform in New York City. Politicians in North Carolina as well as in New York will oppose any method that interferes with their control of machine politics.

Father Time is the only old codger who can "come back." He plays a waiting game and never fails to take the count against the strong as well as the weak. Before Father Time, all men are equal when it comes to laying them out in his own way.

It is stated that New York will soon become as modern as Wilmington and other American cities. The last of the horse-car lines are soon to be discontinued in the great American metropolis. Thus a relic of a by-gone civilization will become a memory.

In his first bout with the New York General Assembly, Col. Roosevelt was sent to the ropes. However, he is laying plans to "come back" in spite of what happened to Jeffries and all others who don't know when it is time to rest on laurels heretofore garnered.

A fine of ten dollars was what a Nebraska woman had to pay for positively refusing to tell the census taker her age. The judge probably knew that it would be punishment for her to pay even money, for if he had made the fine $9.98 she would have jumped at the bargain and called him a cheap skate.

Two cadets have been expelled from West Point for lying. They were forcibly reminded that "a gentleman does not lie." They may be mistaken about that at West Point, but as a matter of fact people should not so corner a gentleman as to make them violate the rules prohibiting prevarication.

The Republicans are now boasting that there is a surplus in the National Treasury. However, the Republicans still have to bear responsibility for the fact that it has been a long time since the Treasury had anything in it to boast about. The fact is there ought to be a surplus in the Treasury all the time.

Foley Kidney Pills Have Cured Me".

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and am now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me."—Robt. R. Bellamy.

THE BRUTAL INSTINCT.

Probably no prize fight that has ever taken place in America has been so demoralizing to the public morals or provoked such evil consequences as the fight at Reno, Nev., Monday, between pugilists James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion of the world. From a quiet western city, Reno became the most debauched centre in America for the time and gained unenviable notoriety throughout the civilized world. Thugs, gamblers, pickpockets, brutal sportsmen, crooks, and moral degenerates from all over the world, and patrons of brutality from all quarters, flocked into the Nevada city and it became the scene of the most disgraceful orgies by day and night that were ever tolerated in a civilized community.

Throughout America and the world the telegraph carried out a polluting volume of brute news and for days up to the close of the inhuman and disgusting spectacle. The boys and men of country, hamlet, town and city reveled in the disgusting morsels picked up at the training camps of the two fight brutes and around the bloody prize ring, creating a morbid and vicious sentiment that will require years to be corrected much less eradicated. Besides the appeal to the brutish instincts of an already depraved element throughout the country, the fight between the white man and the negro probably had its worst effect in stirring up a race animosity that resulted in brutal assaults, bloodshed and racial riot in numerous cities North and South.

A serious view which we take of the pugilistic encounter between a white man and a negro, with triumph for the black man, is its tendency to demoralize and brutalize the negro race, now struggling to a higher civilization and nobler aspirations. There is no calculating the immense amount of damage that will be done to the negroes, not to mention the brutalizing influences which even the more enlightened white race will perceptibly feel. There is no rhyme or reason for the riotous demonstrations throughout the country over so disgusting an affair as that in which a big white brute and a big black brute were the principals. It only goes to show how such a brutalizing spectacle appeals to the worst instincts of both races throughout the length and bredth of the United States, resuling in numerous bloody affrays and murder. For this Jeffries can be largely blamed. He let down the bars for social equality between himself and the negro and certainly when he puts himself on a level with Johnson white men could ill afford to became his partisans ready for a row or a riot.

The orgies at Reno and the spectacle of brutality at the ring side, gloried in by fight fanatics and gamblers who staked thousands of dollars upon the bloody outcome, was sufficiently revolting to refinement, decency, morals and humanity to justify the creation of a national sentiment which has caused prize fights to be outlawed in every State in the Union. Even in Nevada an anti-prize fight law, previously adopted by the Legislature, will soon go into effect, but to the shame of the Governor of Nevada he permitted the Jeffries-Johnson fight in defiance of the moral indignation of the people of his State. With a public sentiment so strong as that which existed in Nevada, the Governor had a fine opportunity to have prevented the fight by moral force, if not under the common laws of the country. In failing to do so he fastened a stigma upon his State and should himself be consigned to a loathsome oblivion.

Let us stand at the ringside for a moment and mentally contemplate the pitiful sight for which thousands of men and even women in their morbid and depraved and blunted sense of morality and humanity gathered to witness. The dispatches tell us that, while Jeffries was not actually counted out after he had almost been mauled into insensibility, he was saved only from that crowning shame by his friends who pleaded with the other brute to the contest not to hit the fallen man again. All senses of refinement and morality and humanity must be sickened at the statement that Jeffries, helpless and bloody, was dragged to his corner, bleeding from nose and mouth and with a dozen cuts on his face. To complete the brutal spectacle, it is added that his eye was blackened and closed, his features were swollen and distorted, and what a short while before was a fine specimen of manhood held his hands to his head dazed and despairing. He tottered on legs too weak to bear his body and required the attention of physicians and nurses to relieve his suffering. In this men and women gloated and yelled and howled over what in their depravity they consider sport. A fight between dogs is more sport than that, because they are brutes, while the human beings who participateed in, witnessed and enjoyed the prize fight are supposed to be intelligent, conscientious beings.

While thousands of people all over this land are starving, hundreds of thousands of dollars were wagered in depravity and debauchment at Reno. The effect of such degrading sport throughout a civilized country cannot be estimated and it is a righteous sentiment that condemns it and calls for wholesome laws that make it a crime. The sentiment which tolerates such barbarity is very little removed from that of the cannibal who kills and eats his victims, while the prize fighter bruises and maims and inflicts cruelties in the name of sport—both gluttons of inhumanity in different degrees.

Probably even more demoralizing will be the moving picture exhibitions of the barbarous display at Reno, the intention being to display them in the cities throughout America and other portions of the world. These pictures probably will have more execrable influence and will create a more widespread demoralization than the fight itself, for the reason that the pictures will bring the brutal sport into the presence of innocent boys and girls and refined audiences throughout the length and breadth of the land. Thus the fight of the brutes as shown on the canvas will appeal to millions, while the fight itself was witnessed only by thousands. If prize fighting has been outlawed and made a crime by statute it would be none the less a crime for the moving pictures to be exhibited in the cities of this country. They should be prohibited for the same reason that a refined and Christian civilization has risen up to demand suppression of prize fighting by law. That is to prevent the cruelty and stifle the morbid sentiment which tolerates it and encourages this crime against humanity.

Some cities have already taken up this question of prohibiting the exhibition of pictures of the fistic battle between Jeffries and Johnson. A tremendous sentiment against it has been manifested in Baltimore and Mayor Mahool has received protests against any such demoralizing exhibitions in that city. The Mayor states that he is as much opposed to having the pictures shown in Baltimore as he would have been opposed to having the fight itself in his city. He very correctly declares that when the fight was suppressed in San Francisco it is time for more civilized localities to take a deeper hand in suppressing every appearance of such brutality.

It is gratifying to note the sweeping wave of opposition to this brutal sport since Jeffries and Johnson decided to meet in the ring. It is evidence of advancing civilization and it is hoped that the protest against barbarity will be so universally popular that prize fighting will become only a memory to be hated and loathed.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Mr. Roosevelt, who arrogantly assumes that he is a dictator before whom every knee must bow and every heart quail, and whose word is law, will sooner or later discover the uncomfortable fact that his throne is tottering and that his sceptre and crown are mere toys.—Troy Standard.

The action in the Assembly yesterday afternoon was as much of a slap at Roosevelt as it was at Hughes and his Primary Reform bill. The jolt that the former President received as the result of his first entrance into the political arena since his return from his hunting trip may serve as proof to him that the big stick robbed of its power of Federal patronage is not so potent as he has believed it to be.—Elmira State Gazette.

At last our friend and native born resident of Greensboro, the Hon. Thomas Settle, has landed. He is to assist Assistant Attorney General Lloyd in the conduct of customs cases. His headquarters will be at New York and his salary will be $5,000. This is not commensurate with his worth, but it is doing well when it is considered that the whole outfit of patronage dispensers in this State have been fighting him.—Greensboro Record.

Ninety men in Confederate gray invaded New York Saturday. By so much was fulfilled a dream which prevailed for a few hours 47 years ago on the field of Gettysburg. But it was fulfilment with a difference. The New York of 1863 was distinctly uneasy when Lee's hosts crossed the Pennsylvania line; this city of 1910 was cordially glad to give a hand and a cheer to the grizzled veterans from Virginia passing through on their way to a Fourth of July feast with Massachusetts boys in blue. "We expect to capitulate body and soul," said Col. Barnard of the visiting grays, "and when it is all over we are going to make the boys in blue come down to Virginia and let us capture them in the same delightful fashion." So over States firmly reunited rises the spirit of a reunion infinitely more than political. At Springfield today they who once fought each other desperately are filling their hours joyfully with mutual appreciations as fellow Americans. How far removed from the impulses of such a reunion was the recent intolerant agitation over the placing of a statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee in the Capitol at Washington!—New York World, July 4.

Staid Washington is up in arms and caustic indeed are the remarks of some of its newspapers. It seems that the report is general that President Taft will appoint an Atlanta negro collector of the port of Georgetown, District of Columbia. One journal declares that all "Washingtonians with an atom of pride are bristling with indignation." We do not know why they should bristle. Negroes have been accorded many privileges in Washington during the last forty years, and many high offices, and the general impression has been that Washington was content. The truth is, that white men are not willing to work under negroes. It is all well enough to talk about equality and justice and a score of other things of the kind, but, as Mr. Roosevelt has said, the sentimentalist has no place in government. The idea of white men taking orders from Africans is revolting to the racial instinct. There is no reason why any white man should be so humiliated. If success in politics requires that a man surrender every principle of racial pride, it is purchased at too high a price. However, the more negroes in office at the North, the more certain is general endorsement of the South's position on the race question. It might be a good thing if every office-holder in the North were a negro.—Charleston News and Courier.

We are deeply pained at the usually chaste and precise Norfolk Landmark, which, in taking a shot at Major W. H. Bernard's hopeless quest of the correct pronunciation of "automobile," says that, as for itself, it is "satisfied with the humble abbreviation 'auto,' which is becoming as well established as 'phone'." Thus do evil communications corrupt good morals, and slang obliterate the landmarks of style and diction. Down in North Carolina, where they have literary grocers, one of the most erudite of these long ago announced that the pass book and the telephone were both inventions of the Devil; and Colonel Belden, of Wilmington, while he has telephones all about him, has come to the age of silvered locks without ever using one of the pernicious contraptions, either to talk with or listen over. But neither of these authorities would think of referring to this every-day acoustic convenience as a "'phone," any more than by referring to a lady's eyes as "lamps" or a gentleman's chappeau as a "lid." Major Bernard, while he would bust before he would be seen in one of the dinged things, insists that, if it must be mentioned in polite society, it should be called in its right name, while the Landmark is willing to forget all its training and instincts in the use of the patter which goes with a machine. We suspect that it wears goggles and rubs gasoline on its hands. It evidently thinks that an automobile "front" is worth any sacrifice necessary to attain it.—Richmond Virginian.

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE

Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting Last Night—Number of Matters Concurred In—Street and Sewerage Work.

The Board of Audit and Finance was in regular semi-monthly session last night, a number of matters that came over from the Aldermen having been passed upon as will appear from the proceedings in detail:

The Board met at 8 o'clock and in the absence of the chairman, Mr. Tiencken was called to the chair, Messrs. McQueen and Wilder being in attendance; also Capt. T. D. Meares, the clerk; Aldermen J. B. Fales and S. J. Ellis, and Attorney Thos. D. Meares, Jr. After the reading and approval of the minutes, a communication was read from the Board of Aldermen stating the action of that body on various matters at the afternoon meeting. Alderman Fales was heard with reference to the deep wells wanted at Fifth and Castle and Seventh and Dawson streets and the appropriation was concurred in. Alderman Ellis spoke in behalf of the appropriation for continuing the drainage work, a communication having been read from the Street Commission stating that they had nothing to do with other than new work. The Board was of the opinion that this class of work should be done under the Sanitary Department and the appropriation was concurred in as previously sent over by the Aldermen.

The appropriation of $500 for three additional deep wells at Front Street Market, Fourth and Swann and Eighth and Red Cross streets was approved.

Chairman Louis Belden, of the Street Commission, came in and addressed the Board asking that the Board refund to the Commission some of its funds that had been used on temporary work, it having now been decided that the Commission nad only to do with new and permanent work. Capt. Belden also demurred to charging to his fund the cost of fitting up the office for the Commission, a part of the office being occupied by the City Engineer. No action was taken.

The question of the contract for feeding and caring for the city teams was further discussed and the bid of the Orrell Livery Co., was accepted.

The action of the Aldermen calling for a sale of $100,000 of the authorized bonds for the sewerage system was considered and the resolution was approved with the last clause providing that none of the money be expended in the purchase of any existing plant, be stricken out, the Board being of the opinion that this question should come up independently and that any restrictions might interfere with the sale of the bonds. The Water and Sewerage Commission, it is understood, has on hand a fund of about $50,000 for sewerage purposes.

The audit of the books of the Water and Sewerage Commission was presented and it being noted that the salaries of some employes in the Water Department had been raised without concurrence of the Board of Audit and Finance, the clerk was instructed to address a letter to the Commission calling attention to the violation of the law and asking for an explanation.

A communication from Chairman L. E. Hall, of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, recommending that W. H. H. Todd be paid $125 for personal injuries sustained in a recent accident on the streets was read and the recommendation was concurred in.

The appropriation of $200 for representation of the city at the Newbern Bi-Centennial was not concurred in, the Board taking the position that this would not be a proper means of advertising.

Bills for current expenses were audited and approved after which the Board adjourned subject to call.

MR. KEITH GETS REPLY.

Received Letter From Col. Roosevelt. Sent Him Editorial.

Mr. B. F. Keith, collector of customs, yesterday received a very courteous and friendly letter from Col. Theodore Roosevelt in reply to one he wrote upon his return from abroad, enclosing an editorial about the colonel, which was taken from one of the State papers.

The colonel's reply was from The Outlook office in New York, Mr. Roosevelt being associate editor of the magazine. Mr. Keith was twice appointed to the office of collector of customs at this port during Roosevelt's two administrations and saw him personally several times in Washington while he was President. The colonel was pleased to know that Theodore Roosevelt Keith was "bright and happy," as expressed in the letter of the ex-President.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

White Man and Negro Sentenced to County Roads Yesterday.

In the Recorder's court yesterday Frank Cumber, a young white man, charged with stealing a chest of tools from Mr. John T. Sholar on April 22nd, was found guilty and sentenced to 12 months on the roads, from which he took an appeal to Superior Court. The warrant was sworn out against him shortly after the alleged theft but he could not be located until a few days ago. Harllee Bellamy, colored, charged with the larceny of automobile tires and inner tubes from the Auto Company, where he has been employed as chauffeur, was given hearing before Justice Harriss, who issued the warrant, and bound over to the Recorder's court, where he was found guilty and sentenced to six months on the roads. Bellamy gave notice of an appeal to Superior Court.

POLICE AND FIRE COMMISSION

Regular Monthly Meeting Last Night. Commissioner Burnett Returns. The Reports Read and Adopted—Dog Cart.

The Police and Fire Commission of the city was in regular monthly session last night at its office in the City Hall, those present being Chairman Wm. E. Springer and Commissioners John Barry and R. A. Burnett, the latter having just returned from Ferguson, S. C., where he nas been employed for several months and having been cordially welcomed by his associates on the Commission.

The business transacted was largely routine. The report of Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the Fire Department, showed 12 alarms during June and a property loss not exceeding $1,800 including the $1,100 loss at the Angola lumber mill, outside the city limits.

Police Chief N. J. Williams submitted his report showing 79 arrests during June, 37 of the defendants being white and 42 colored. Chief Williams also reported for the year ended June 1st, 1,393 arrests, 567 of which were of white and 826 black persons. In concluding his yearly report Chief Williams says:

"The number of arrests this year shows a decrease from last year of 241. Last year the decrease was about the same. It seems that the above facts show that good order prevails more every year in our community. We have had less murders committed in the last two years than at any time in my recollection for the same period. The only violation of law that gives the police trouble to any extent is the violation of the prohibition law. This law is hard to handle without funds. We have arrested last year 35 whites and 26 blacks. This number of arrests shows that the officers are doing all they can under the circumstances.

"The personality of the force has been improved considerably in the last two years, the average age of the men on the force now is 38 1-2 years, the average weight is 181, the average height is 5 feet, 8 inches. Our mounted force is still doing good work. We have seven patrol horses in good condition and would be worth $250 each, on the market today.

"The dog ordinance is giving us trouble this year. We have not been furnished with a cart and I instructed the officers to prosecute all keepers of dogs, but this takes lots of their time and profits very little, as they cannot tell who are the owners of the dogs that fill the streets every day.

"In concluding this report I desire to thank the chairman and members of the Commission for their hearty cooperation with me in my work this year."

A communication was read from the Board of Aldermen advising the Police Commission that the dog cart had not been sent on its rounds this year and urging that some action be taken for a better enforcement of the law requiring that dogs be not allowed to run at large without the necessary badges. The communication was placed on file and the clerk was directed to address a communication to the Board of Aldermen explaining the custom from time immemorial of drawing upon the Streets and Wharves Department for a cart, the police to furnish an officer to man the carts and deal with the violations of the law, which the Commission stands ready to do now.

FUNERAL OF MRS. YOPP.

Services Held From the Late Residence Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Laura A. Yopp, wife of Mr. A. P. Yopp, whose sad death occurred Monday afternoon, was held from the late residence, No. 415 Grace street, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church. There were present a large number of relatives and friends to pay a last sad tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. The floral designs were many and beautiful and bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which Mrs. Yopp was held in the community. A special musical programme was rendered by the choir of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. A. H. Yopp has been organist for some time. The members of the choir taking part were Mr. H. K. Holden, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Miss Lucy McIntosh and Mr. Greene Fenley. Following the sad, but beautiful and impressive services at the home, the body was tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where it was laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Dr. A. M. Baldwin, Messrs. Jas. F. Post, Jas. H. Chadbourn and J. C. Springer; active, Messrs. A. S. Holden, W. C. Peterson, Geo. E. Leftwich, N. M. McEachern, James Owen Reilly and A. E. Blake.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT IN JUNE

Meeting of Board Called for Yesterday Did Not Materialize.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Health, called for 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was not held for the reason that at that hour Mayor MacRae, ex-officio chairman, was engaged in a meeting of the Board of Aldermen. There are some matters of importance to be considered by the board and a called meeting will probably be held some time within the next few days.

The report of health department for the month of June shows that there were 41 deaths, 25 whites and 16 colored; 60 births, 24 whites and 36 colored. There were 6,733 inspections; 3,389 surface closets ordered cleaned and 2,300 orders issued for disinfectants. There were remaining July 1st one case of diphtheria; three cases of scarlet fever and four cases of smallpox. During the month there were 17 new cases of smallpox. There were 15 fumigations. The following is the report of Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, city meat and dairy inspector for the month of June as made to Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health:

"During the month of June I made 36 inspections of dairies and dairy farms. The sanitary condition and health of cattle and attendants were good. There was no application for sale of milk and no permits were granted. During the month I made 427 post examinations of slaughtered meats, as follows: 88 cattle and 339 sheep, with no condemnations."

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Regular Monthly Meeting Yesterday Afternoon—Much Routine Business—Jurors for July Term of Court—Other News.

The Board of County Commissioners was in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon, a recess having been taken from Monday on account of the National holiday. The business transacted was largely routine, jurors for the two weeks' term of court to convene July 25th having been drawn and other business transacted. It was expected that some action with reference to those who had failed to list taxes during the regular period would be taken, but this was deferred to a future meeting until the precedent could be ascertained, the chairman not being present.

The Board met at 3 o'clock and in the absence of Chairman McEachern, who was ill, Commissioner Divine presided and other members of the Board in attendance were Col. John VanB. Metts and Mr. J. P. Montgomery, J. Wesley Hunt was excused from road duty on account of physical disability. A petition from residents of Winter Park Gardens Co., complaining of the nuisance created by near-beer dealers located at or near that place, was presented and action was deferred for further investigation. Reports of the Superintendent of County Home and County Roads were referred to the Auditing Committee. Upon presentation of the case by Rev. K. D. Holmes, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, Mrs. Hester Buford was placed on outdoor poor list at $2 per month.

The report of the Superintendent of Health showed that during June 18 cases of smallpox were quarantined, one case of diphtheria, two of scarlet fever and five of typhoid fever were reported. During the month 179 patients were treated in the office. No serious sickness occurred in any of the county institutions, all of which are in good sanitary condition.

Having become a member of the city street commission, the resignation of Capt. Louis Belden as a member of the board of tax assessors for Wilmington township was read and accepted, the election of his successor being deferred for further consideration.

The report of the Superintendent of Roads was read and deferred for examination at an adjourned meeting. The following jurors were drawn for the two weeks term of New Hanover Superior Court, which convenes June 21st.

Delightful Trip to Beach.

The Philathea Class of Trinity M. E. Church is preparing for a delightful excursion to Carolina Beach on Thursday evening, July 7th. The steamer Wilmington will leave the city at 8 o'clock and returning will leave Carolina Beach at 10:45 o'clock. A large crowd is expected and a delightful time is assured all who care to join the class for the pleasant occasion. A delightful programme will be rendered by the Junior Epworth League at the beach and this alone will be well worth the price of the trip, which is only 25 cents for the round trip. A liberal patronage is confidently predicted.

WITH SOUTHERN NATIONAL.

Mr. LaMar Pegram, of Gastonia, New Receiving Teller at Bank.

Mr. LaMar Pegram, for several years teller in the First National Bank, of Gastonia, is temporarily filling the position of receiving teller at the Southern National Bank, this city, taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. W. M. Wiggins, who left the bank June 15th to go with the Gerken Tobacco Co. Mr. Pegram is admittedly one of the foremost bank tellers in the South. He gave up the banking business some two years ago to engage in the cotton business at Gastonia and was induced by Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern, to come here between the cotton seasons. While the engagement is only temporary the management of the bank hopes to make it permanent.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Co. has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing to them is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief and cure in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes their guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size, 50c.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEET

Mayor MacRae Granted Three Months' Leave of Absence—Ordinance Fixing Closing Hour for Restaurants Adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon Mayor Walter G. MacRae was granted a leave of absence for three months. The Mayor has not been in the best of health for some months and he finally yielded to the wishes of his friends that he take a vacation of two or three months. The Mayor will be in his office today at which time he will formally turn over the reins of government to Mayor Pro Tem S. J. Ellis, member of the Board of Aldermen, from the Third Ward, who will be the Acting Mayor during the absence of Captain MacRae. The innumerable friends of Mayor MacRae hope that he will return to his duties as head of the city government greatly improved in health.

Aside from the adoption of an ordinance requiring all restaurants outside of a certain district to close between the hours of 9 P. M. and 5 A. M., except on Saturdays when they may remain open until 11:30 P. M., and the re-adoption of a resolution requesting the Board of Audit and Finance to sell the $100,000 water and sewerage bonds the time of the board was taken up largely with routine matters.

The following ordinance, relative to the closing of restaurants drafted by Alderman West, was unanimously adopted:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to conduct the business of a restaurant outside of the district of Front, from Red Cross to Orange, and Princess, from Third to Water, and Market, from Front to Water streets, from the hours of 9 P. M. to 5 A. M. except on Saturdays when they shall close at 11:30 P. M.

"Any person, firm or corporation violating this ordinance shall be fined $25 for each and every offense."

The ordinance, which some lawyers say will not stand the test of the courts, became effective last night. Restaurant licenses were granted the following: Wm. Mosely, Sixth and Campbell; Sallie Graham, Brunswick, between Third and Fourth; O. D. Hall, No. 111 North Second; W. S. Cook, Eighth and Red Cross. An application to do a restaurant business on Chesnut, between 10th and 11th streets, was rejected, as was also the application of Wm. Nelson, 808 Castle street. The application of Marganna Smith, No. 513 North Fifth street, was deferred for further information.

Two communications from Capt. Louis Belden, chairman of the Street Commission, both dated June 25th, were read. The first one:

"We beg to advise you that we are now prepared to proceed with the work of grading, paving and improving the streets of the city. Before doing so, however, we think that the sewerage question should be settled first, clearly and definitely. It seems to us that it would be bad business policy to proceed to improve any of the streets with the possibility before us of their being torn up again within a few years, for the purpose of doing a class of work that should be done before the contemplated street improvements begin." The other communication was to the effect that at a meeting of the Commission on June 24th, "It was the opinion of the board that the repairs of streets and waterways, previously constructed, that this Commission has nothing to do with. That the act of the Legislature of 1907 for the purpose of paving the streets of the city of Wilmington only intended for new work, and the Commission has decided that nothing in the act is intended for any other purpose but for new work." During the month of June warrants were drawn by the Commission to the amount of $1,309.20.

Upon motion of Alderman Hinton the Board of Audit and Finance was again requested to place on the market the $100,000 worth of water and sewerage bonds which have not yet been sold. The amount to be used in the construction of a sewerage system. Members of the board agree with the Street Commission that the work of improving the streets shuold not proceed until the sewerage question has been settled.

At the suggestion of Alderman Bonitz Section 21 of the health and sanitary ordinance was amended so as to require that the filth and offal from stables and cowpens, etc., be removed once a week during the Summer months instead of once every two weeks as formerly required.

Alderman West called attention to the fact that the dog cart has not yet started on is rounds, and upon motion of Alderman Hall the clerk was instructed to notify the Police and Fire Commission that the cart is not out and also that dogs are running on the streets contrary to law. One or two Aldermen asked also that the chief of police be requested to read the ordinance relative to dogs.

At the suggestion of Capt. Louis Belden, chairman of the Street Commission, the clerk was instructed to call to the attention of the officials of the Seaboard Air Line the condition of the Fourth street bridge, near Nixon street.

The report of Mr. J. J. Fowler, city clerk and treasurer, for the month of June was as follows: Balance on hand, June 1st, $49,043.66; total receipts for the month, $16,904.45, making a grand total of $65,948.11. Disbursements, $14,110.29, leaving a balance of $51,837.82.

The board adjourned shortly after 5 o'clock.

The board met shortly after 3 o'clock with Mayor Walter G. MacRae presiding and Aldermen Ellis, West, Fales, Hinton, Rehder, Stone and Hall and City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler in attendance. Alderman Bonitz came in later. A communication was read from the Board of Audit and Finance stating the action of that body on matters which went over for concurrence at the last meeting. The contract for furnishing coal for the public buildings was returned to the Aldermen for information as to why the contract was awarded to the highest bidder. Attention was also called to the fact that the Aldermen had not revised Section 37 of the tax ordinance as recommended by the Board of Audit and Finance. The latter board has concurred in all other portions of the tax ordinance. In connection with the communication from the Board of Audit and Finance, a letter was read from Mr. B. A. Merritt protesting against the awarding of the coal contract to the Springer Coal Company when his bid was 5 cents per ton less than that of the Springer Company. Mr. D. H. Penton, of the Springer Coal Company, was present and explained to the board that the coal offered by his company was the Pennsylvania anthracite coal and was considered 25 per cent better than the Virginia anthracite coal. After some discussion it was decided to call for new bids the same to be acted upon at the August meeting.

Under the head of reports, Chairman S. J. Ellis, of the Sanitary Committee, stated that at the last meeting he asked for and was granted an appropriation to continue the work of his department, but that the Board of Audit and Finance had decided that the work he had been doing properly came under the supervision of the Street Commission, hence the appropriation was turned down by that body. Mr. Ellis called attention to the fact that the Street Commission had held that it was responsible for repairs of new work. He therefore asked that the Aldermen again appropriate $1,778.40 for salaries of the men employed in his department. Upon motion the appropriation was made, and Alderman Ellis requested to appear before the Board of Audit and Finance and explain the necessity of concurrence.

Chairman Stone, of the Light Committee, reported that a Tungsten light had been taken out at Water and Orange streets and an arc light substituted. Alderman Hinton suggested that Mr. Stone take up with the Tidewater Power Company the matter of putting the Tungsten arch light at Second and Princess, Second and Market and Third and Princess diagonally across the streets.

Alderman Fales, chairman of the Water and Sewerage Committee, reported that the deep wells in the Fifth Ward, for which an appropriation was recently made, would be located at Fifth and Castle and Seventh and Dawson streets. Alderman Hinton moved that the board appropriate $150 for the sinking of a deep well near the Front street market, Alderman West moved as a substitute that $500 be appropriated for deep wells so as to provide for two others, one at Fourth and Swan and one at Eighth and Red Cross. The amendment was accepted and passed unanimously.

Alderman Fales said that there were so many persons doing an illegal "near-beer" business that many of the holders of licenses were sorry that they had paid the privilege tax, those places not licensed being permitted to remain open as late as desired while the licensed saloons are required to close at 9 P. M. Alderman West said that this was a strong argument against early closing hours for the near-beer saloons. Alderman Fales asked for an appropriation of $500 to stop the unlawful sale of near-beer, etc. Mayor MacRae stated that it was the duty of the chief of police to look out for violations of the law without reward—his salary being fixed at so much a month for that purpose. Aldermen Hall and Hinton stated that they thought it up to the police and not the Board of Aldermen to enforce the laws. Alderman Fales stated that any policeman would substantiate his statement relative to the sale of intoxicants by places that have not secured licenses, or words to that effect.

Mayor MacRae yesterday morning received the following telegram from the Mayor of Newbern, the same being read at the meeting yesterday:

"Newbern, N. C., July 5, 1910.

"Mayor of Wilmington, N. C.

"Your participation in the bi-centennial parade Tuesday, July 26th, very much desired. Can be done small cost to your city. Important for us to have Wilmington represent historical event assigned to you. Please submit this to your board and advise us at once.

"C. J. M'CARTHY,
"MAYOR."

Upon motion of Alderman Hinton the board appropriated $200 to provide for a float to be used in the parade. Alderman Rehder stated that the German citizens of this city would be well represented at the celebration. They will have a handsome float in the parade and have engaged the fort band to furnish music.

The Board of Audit and Finance referred the contract for the feed of city teams back to the Aldermen for more specific information. Upon motion of Alderman West the board decided to let the contract remain as it was given out and the clerk was instructed to notify the Board of Audit and Finance that the contract was entirely satisfactory to the Aldermen.

Upon motion of Alderman Hinton Mayor MacRae was granted a leave of absence of 60 or 90 days, whichever he desires. The motion was acted upon with Mayor Pro Tem S. J. Ellis in the chair. Mayor MacRae has been suffering considerably recently on account of rheumatism and will probably go away for treatment. In his absence Mr. Ellis will act as Mayor. Alderman Bonitz suggested that he and the Mayor take a trip to Europe to study municipal problems of the old country and the Mayor said he was willing.

Mr. T. W. Callihan submitted bids for sinking two deep wells in the Fifth Ward, the price named being $130 for each well. The matter was referred to the chairman of the Water and Sewerage Committee with power to act.

A petition from near-beer dealers asking that the hours of closing near-beer places be changed from 9 P. M. to 11 P. M. was tabled. A near-beer license was granted to Edward Eberhardt, No. 15 Market street.

Immanuel Brotherhood.

With a large and enthusiastic attendance of the members, the regular semi-annual meeting of the Brotherhood of Immanuel Presbyterian Church was held last night, the election of officers for the ensuing term resulting as follows: Preisdent, James Daniels; vice president, Sam Matthews; secretary and treasurer, Herbert E. Walton (re-elected); chaplain, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of the church. A number of interesting short talks were made by members of the organization. It was decided to gave a musicale next Tuesday night in the lecture room of the church, an attractive programme for which will be announced in a few days.

The cost of a Business Local is a small fee to pay for securing a good tenant.

The patient has tuberculosis in an advanced stage and he will deeply appreciate any help which may be rendered. Contributions which are desired immediately may be sent to Mayor Walter G. MacRae or to Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, the acting president of the Red Cross Society.

Death of Infant Child.

The 10-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bateman, of Morven, Anson county, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at the Marion Seaside Home, Wrightsville Beach, whither it was taken some days ago for treatment. Mrs. Bateman was at the home with the little one when the end came. The body was prepared for burial by Funeral Director James F. Woolvin, and taken on the afternoon Seaboard train to Wadesboro, whence it will be taken to Morven.

HOT-WEATHER CONSTIPATION

People should be very careful at this time of the year not to become constipated, and if they do become constipated to attend to it promptly. Many people have a special tendency to constipation in hot weather, owing to the sudden change in food and to the fact that the natural moisture of the body that in winter remains within and helps to digest the food, leaves the system in the summer in the form of perspiration. Constipation should be immediately relieved. The best way to do this is not, as some suppose, by eating themselves sick with fruit and making the matter worse, nor by taking salts and laxative waters, which, as all who have tried them know, give but temporary relief; but, on the contrary, you should use a tried-and-true remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts quickly but mildly and which relieves permanently so that a steady and lasting cure results. A bottle can be bought of any druggist, in sizes of 50 cents and $1.00. Those who have not yet tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and would like to make a test of it, can do so FREE OF CHARGE by sending their address for a SAMPLE BOTTLE to

NASH REPUBLICANS.

Marion Butler Takes a Hand—Isaac Meekins Also on Deck.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Spring Hope, N. C., July 5.—The Republicans of Nash county held their county convention yesterday at Nashville. Col. Washington Sampson Bailey was elected chairman and Col. John Calhoun Matthews and Prof. Horace Greeley Morgan were the secretaries, and the resolution introducers were Joe R. Jones, of Red Oak township, and the Hon. Mary Ann Butler, late of Sampson county and once upon a time U. S. Senator, and now living in Washington, but claiming Sampson county as his home. The only business attended to was the election of 13 delegates to the State convention and the fixing of the second Saturday of August as the date for the county convention when a ticket will be put in the field and an executive committee elected. Bernard Brooks, Esq., who only last Saturday was in the Democratic primary and made a house to house canvass almost in some sections for a defeated candidate for office, had it announced by the secretary that owing to the extreme meanness of the Democrats that he would hereafter affiliate with the Republicans. Later in the day he came into the convention smiling and he was greeted with the glad hand. Joe R. Jones, who hasn't much love for Postmaster Cooper, of Nashville, (Joe's uncle is a candidate for the office), introduced a resolution that no Federal office-holder (there is no other sort of Republican office-holder in Nash) be elected a delegate to any of the conventions. The Hon. Mary Ann Butler endorsed the resolution and the Hon. Isaac M. Meekins was opposed to the resolution. After some speech making by the two foreigners and after Mr. Jones learned that Mr. Cooper, the Nashville postmaster, didn't want to attend the State convention, the resolution was withdrawn.

The greater part of the day, (and it was nearly 6 o'clock when the convention adjourned), was spent in hearing rambling speeches from Hon. Mary Ann Butler and the Hon. Isaac M. Meekins. They made long speeches, and even their Republican friends were disappointed. The fact of the matter was that the two men, both of whom are good speakers, were laboring under a disadvantage. They represent different factions of the party, and they didn't know exactly how the convention stood. They seemed afraid to turn loose for fear they would fire off some hidden mine. That's the way it seemed to a looker-on. Butler talked about a multitude of things, politics, religion, philosophy, Editor Lincke, of the Nashville Graphic, whom he denounced; Congressman J. M. Morehead, who he said should be elected State chairman, and about President Taft's policy in making Federal appointments. He introduced a resolution endorsing Taft, and said that it was the purpose to have a delegate introduce the resolution, but that he had written it and as the delegate couldn' read his hand writing he would introduce it. The resolution endorsed President Taft's Greensboro speech. Butler said the same resolution would be passed in the Sampson county convention. The resolution went through with a whoop.

The speech of the Hon. Isaac Meekins was a sort of whooping up kind and it was greeted with applause. The Assistant District Attorney didn't turn himself loose, for he evidently didn't know the temper of the convention, and it is said that it was altogether against the present State organization. Mr. Meekins was very much of a diplomat, and although Joe Jones, nephew of would-be Nashville Postmaster Griffin, said Mr. Meekins ought not to have butted in, still everything moved smoothly. Mr. Butler's resolution said that no Federal officer should be appointed unless he had the endorsement of the people among whom he is to serve. It was introduced in John C. Matthews' name and went through with a whoop. The Colonel hadn't evidently seen the resolution before it was passed, for it might have some bearing on his candidacy for the Spring Hope postoffice.

FOURTH AT LAURINBURG.

Races, Contests, Baseball, Etc.—Prizes Awarded to Winners.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., July 4.—The biggest day that Laurinburg has seen in years was today. Thousands of people from several counties flocked here to witness the feats of the day. Thirty mounted marshals had their hands full keeping people off the streets and avoiding accidents. Only one accident occurred of any seriousness. While the horse racing was in progress an automobile struck a colored boy but the injury is not at all fatal. The Dilworth Band of Charlotte, N. C., made the music for the occasion. It led the programme of the day with a concert at the Court House square. At noon two parades were going. One by the automobiles contesting for the prizes and another by venicles contesting for the prizes. The decided the car of Mr. Hinton James which is a Winton Six, was the most beautifully decorated and to him was awarded the handsome mahogany rocker given by Parker-Gardner Co., of Charlotte. The best decorated carriage was that of Mrs. D. A. McDougald. The best decorated buggy was that of Mrs. T. T. Covington. In the horse races Mr. Calvin McKinnon's horse took the prize for the fastest trotting. J .A. Roper, riding his own horse won in the running. The chief feature of the day was the league game between Rockingham and Laurinburg. The space at the grounds allotted for spectators and the grand stand was crowded to its utmost. The gate receipts show that there were more than 1,700 people in attendance. The game was of a high class, spiced with phenomenal plays. Both teams batted like fiends. Laurinburg was lucky in being able to make hers count for more than Rockingham. DeForrest, the new catcher for Laurinburg, set the spectators wild with a home run. The entire day was filled with interest and the boosters are gratified with the results. The score was 4 to 1 in favor of Laurinburg.

FIRE AT ROCKY MOUNT.

Residence Destroyed—Neighbors Engage in Serious Affray.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 5.—The alarm of fire that came in Sunday night shortly before 11 o'clock, proved to be from the fifth ward and was a four room residence in the rear of the Atlantic Coast Line relief hospital at South Rocky Mount. The residence was occupied by a family by the name of Jackson and it was necessary for the occupants to flee for their lives, and there was very little in the way of house furnishings that was saved. The residence was owned by Mr. Tom Luper and was entirely destroyed. There was no insurance on the furnishings while the building was partly covered by insurance.

A neighbors' quarrel with more or less serious results occurred at an early hour this morning on Clarke street and as the result, Mr. R. A. Taylor is in a serious condition with several cuts on his body and face while his three antagonists are more or less used up. The trouble was started by a disagreement of the two families, who are next-door neighbors, with the result that a fight was the outcome. Mr. W. W. Biggs and his two sons were arrayed against Mr. R. A. Taylor and after a short fisticuff, between the two heads of the households, Mr. Biggs produced a knife and slashed Mr. Taylor about the body, whereupon Mr. Taylor secured a brick and struck Mr. Biggs a severe blow in the face with it. Mr. Biggs called for his shotgun and one of his sons gave it to him, and as he did so, Mr. Taylor took the gun away and beat Mr. Biggs over the head with it. The two sons of Mr. Biggs entered the scrap, which was finally broken up by the arrival of the officer. Mr. Biggs is severely hurt about the face, while Mr. Taylor has a wound several inches long on his left side just under his heart. He has several wounds and cuts from the use of the knife on his face.

GOV. SANDERS FOR SENATE.

Nominated to Succeed Senator McEnery in Louisiana Yesterday.

Baton Rouge, La., July 5.—By an overwhelming majority Governor Jared Young Sanders was today declared the choice of both Houses of the Louisiana General Assembly for the seat in the United States Senate left vacant by the recent death of Senator Samuel Douglas McEnery.

Receiving 37 votes in the Senate against one for Representative Robert F. Broussard, of the third Congressional district; and 92 votes in the House against four for Broussard, and 12 for John D. Williamson, of Shreveport, Sanders fulfilled the promises, which were made by his friends. His term will expire in 1915.

Sanders' election to the Senate has been a foregone conclusion ever since Senator McEnery died. Tomorrow both Houses of the Assembly will meet in joint session and Sanders will be formally elected. He will retain the Governorship until December, when he will resign and go to Washington.

Lieutenant Governor Lambremont then becomes Governor and Senator Thomas C. Barrett, president protem. of the Senate, succeeds Lambremont.

ARE FIGHTING EXTRADITION.

South Carolinian in Trouble in New York—The Charges.

Albany, N. Y., July 5.—Governor Hughes was asked today to give a rehearing on his action in honoring the extradition to Tennessee of H. Shep Pearlstein, of Denmark, S. C., on a charge of embezzling $14,000 from Palmer Brothers, of Charleston, Tenn., and New Orleans, La.

S. D. Mayfield, of Denmark, counsel for Pearlstein, informed the Governor that the original papers were granted without opposition through a misunderstanding. He contended today that Pearlstein was not a fugitive from justice, claiming he was not in Tennessee from November 1907 to May 1909, the period covered by the indictments.

The indictment grew out of a business transaction to corner the pea market in several of the Southern States. The Governor of South Carolina refused to extradite Pearlstein from that State.

Governor Hughes said he would communicate with the Tennessee authorities and render his decision later.

ADVANCE SHOWN IN COTTON

Caused by Steadiness in Liverpool and Bullish Official Condition Figures—Trading Quite Active—The Advance.

New York, July 5.—There was further advance in the cotton market during today's early trading as a result of steadiness in Liverpool and unfavorable crop accounts following the bullish official condition figures of Friday and while part of the gains were lost later as a result of realizing the close was steady at a net advance of 1 to 19 points with the new crop ruling 15 to 19 points above the closing figures of last week.

The opening was firm at an advance of 9 to 13 points in response to the cables and the unfavorable showing of the weather map which indicated continued wet weather in the Eastern belt and insufficient rain in Texas or exactly the conditions which are considered probable for the deterioration reported by the government as having occurred in the outlook during the past month. Trading was quite active at the start and it looked as if numerous private reports of unfavorable crop developments were being accompanied by Southern buying orders, but after the market had worked up to a net gain of about 11 to 20 points during the late forenoon the volume of buying became smaller and prices in the later trading eased off from the best under renewed realizing. There may also have been some local selling from a turn based on an idea that the buying power created by the low condition figures had been practically exhausted and that the market was in line for a reaction, but the selling was at no time aggressive and last prices were within 3 or 4 points of the best in the active new crop positions. Trade reports continued unfavorable and in sympathy with the unsettled feeling in Wall Street, circles probably restricted buying to some extent, but the official forecast was for a continuation of practically the same kind of weather recenly noted in the belt and selling for a reaction was evidently very cautious. Southern spot markes as officially reported early were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 1,367 bales against 4,256 last week and 5,889 last year; for the week 20,000 bales against 23,311 last week and 18,897 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 70 bales against 2,181 last year and at Houston 1,201 bales against 580 last year.

Spot closed quiet. 10 points higher; middling uplands 15.45; middling gulf 15.70; sales 11,897 bales. Futures opened firm and closed steady.

BULL LEADERS INACTIVE.

Condition of Cotton Market After Suspension for the Holidays.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 5.—The opening of business after the holidays found satisfactory advices from abroad with some belated buying orders on Friday's bureau figures. Apart from this the outside interest was at low ebb, with the bull leaders here inactive and the market listless and apathetic with extremely light trading. Crop news is generally good especially from Texas, but from elsewhere the advices suggest a cautious policy, with too much rain reported in Georgia and Alabama.

FURTHER DECLINE IN STOCKS

Demand Showed Extreme Prostration and Prices Were Allowed to Run Downwards—Renewal of Depression—Conditions.

New York, July 5.—Demand for stocks showed extreme prostration today and prices were allowed to run downwards without any sign of support in opposition to the part of important banking and financial interests. The amount of stocks marketed was not large. The severity of the extreme declines was notable on that account.

The bear party in the market seem encouraged by the facility with which they were able to procure stocks to cover the short contracts left open after last week's break in prices. Having covered over the three days holiday interval, they were prepared but they were prepared to put out fresh short lines today. The demand was so languid that this selling was easily effective. The consequence was a drop to near last week's low level of prices quite early in the day, but an arrest short of that and a recovery later.

The renewal of the depression was not accounted for by any striking new development in the situation. The most important item of news was the sudden death of the venerable Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Probably no period in the history of the Supreme Court has seen questions of such vital and peculiar interest to corporate wealth awaiting the decision of that tribunal. The extreme view of the pending Sherman law cases before that court is that the very existence of corporations is wrapped up in the form which the decree may take. Unless a special session of the Senate is called to act on early appointments to fill vacancies on the Supreme bench a further delay in the hearing of the cases until after December 1st, is regarded as unavoidable. This prospect was felt as a discouragement.

Another item in the day's disquietude was the large shrinkage in cash holdings of the banks disclosed by the Saturday bank statement. A loss of nearly $19,000,000 in the actual cash holdings was difficult to account for even with allowance for the record half yearly payments made and the heavy drain incident to the collection of the corporation income tax which is being paid almost entirely through the New York banks.

A $9,813,800 loan expansion did not consist with the known facts of the drastic stock market liquidation, although the semi-annual settlements might offer a plausible explanation of the loan item. The cash item, however, caused a supposition that outside banks had drawn very heavily on their New York balances and this directed renewed attention to the possibility of further requirements to conserve the interior banking position.

Something was made of the strength of wheat and cotton and the threat of a strike on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The fact that resistance to the decline was encountered short of last week's low prices, except in Reading and American Smelting, served to reassure the later speculative sentiment and the market closed at some recovery from the day's extreme declines.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,760,000. United States were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 803,400 shares including Copper 50,000; Sugar 500; Tobacco 400; A. C. L. 1,500; C. & O. 8,900; L. & N. 1,800; N. & W. 1,100; Reading 150,500; Sloss-Sheffield 300; S. P. 49,400; Southern 2,000; do preferred 700; U. P. 133,300; Steel 188,500; Y. C. C. 3,500.

MR. ATWATER DROPS DEAD.

Ex-Congressman From Raleigh District Summoned by the Master.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Durham, N. C., July 4.—Ex-Congressman John M. Atwater, of Farrington, Chatham county, dropped dead late this afternoon while plowing on his farm.

The news of his death came here by the Durham & South Carolina road and only the bare facts could be gathered. He had not been previously ill, so far as known. When found he was dead.

He lived with his son and worked on the farm. His wife and four children survive him, one of these being a prominent physician.

Mr. Atwater was elected Congressman in 1894. Though he went off, with the populistic movement, he served as an independent and, while doing nothing brilliant, was much liked and he was a good man. He was about 69 years of age.

Atlanta, Ga., July 5.—Mrs. J. C. Courtney, widow of the late Major John C. Courtney, former manager of the local offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company, died at her home here at 7 o'clock this evening. Her body will be taken to Petersburg, Va., her former home, for interment.

TRAIN DISPATCHER ACCUSED

Engineer Declares Him Responsible For Ohio Wreck.

Cincinnati, O., July 5.—Interest in yesterday's disastrous wreck of the Big Four New York flyer at Middletown, Ohio, in which more than a score of lives were sacrificed, was transferred to Cincinnati today. A statement from J. W. Wall, pilot engineer of the Big Four passenger train, which crashed into a freight train of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway, placed blame for the wreck on Train Dispatcher Smith of the latter system at Dayton.

In this, he was partly confirmed by E. A. Gould, general superintendent of the Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton.

Mr. Gould was unwilling to go further than say "some such reason was responsible for the accident," but railroad men about the headquarters of the two systems accepted the explanation of Wall as containing the gist of the cause.

Wall's statement follows: "The engineer of the freight train showed me order No. 60, supposed to have been issued after our train (the Big Four limited) left Dayton and to have been handed to us at Carlisle between Dayton and Middletown. This order gave the freight till 1:07 to make the siding at Poast Town, North of Middletown.

"Smith revoked that order so that it was not delivered to us at Carlisle, but failed to revoke the same order issued to the freight. Our train was made up some time after leaving Dayton and this brought us to the Poast Town siding earlier than 1:07.

"We had no warning of anything in the way and supposed we had a clear line."

Wall also exhibited four train orders not one of which gave any indication that flying passenger train was to meet any other train at Poast Town or any other station between Dayton and Cincinnati.

These orders, Wall added, were all that had to guide him the day of the wreck.

Local officers of the Big Four road are not willing to account officially for the wreck. A "misunderstanding of orders" was mentioned by some, but whose miunderstanding it was they were not prepared to state.

With the definite identification of the four unnamed bodies at Middletown, all the 19 dead in that place were accounted for. Two more wounded victims died early today, one at Dayton and one at Hamilton. These were John Rankin, Springfield, Ohio, and Evelyn Lloyd, Round Point, Maine, and their passing made the death list 21. Four others are scarely expected to survive their hurts.

SUPREME COURT VACANCIES.

Hughes Will Probably be Made Chief Justice—President Taft.

Beverly, Mass., July 5.—There was no developments in Beverly today concerning the Supreme Court vacancies. Callers at the Summer White House found nothing in the President's attitude to change the statements of yesterday that Gov. Hughes, of New York, is just now filling Mr. Taft's eye to the exclusion of everybody else.

The understanding also continues that the President will do nothing toward designating the successor to Chief Justice Fuller until late in the Fall. A proposition to call the Senate in extraordinary session to confirm appointees to the Supreme Court bench in advance of the regular session of Congress was suggested today but met with no encouragement. The big "trust cases," affecting the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies, are set for re-argument in November. The regular session of Congress begins December 5th. To put the cases over until that time would mean a delay of but a few weeks—not a sufficient disadvantage, it is said, here to warrant the heavy expense of an extraordinary session.

President Taft in common with the remaining justices of the Supreme Court, is anxious that the three important cases scheduled for re-argument this Fall—the Standard Oil, Tobacco and corporation tax—shall be heard by a full bench. Consequently it is not regarded as likely that he will select any man against whom a question might arise as to previous participation in these cases.

Mr. Taft will take a full measure of time to consider the situation before making up his mind as to the members of the court.

POSSE KILLS WRONG MAN

Fearful Mistake of Posse at Little Rock—Hotel Proprietor Slain.

Little Rock, Ark., July 5—A dispatch from Georgetown, Ark., tonight reports the killing at that place late today of A. E. Johnson, a hotel proprietor, by a negro.

The negro, a member of a railroad construction gang, had been drinking, it is said, and the killing followed a trivial dispute.

A posse which immediately started in pursuit later shot and killed a negro who refused to halt. It developed, however, that the man killed was not the one wanted, and the posse is continuing its search.

JEFFRIES LEAVES SCENE OF DF DEFEAT

he came to his senses, his first words were: "Who won?"

He was not told until today. When he heard the name of Johnson he turned his face to the wall and groaned. This expresses the general sentiment fairly well.

Jack Johnson was $120,600 richer when Jim Jeffries went down for the last time in yesterday's fight. He took 60 per cent. of the $101,000 purse which amounted to $60,600, a bonus of $10,000 and he sold his picture interests for $50,000.

Jeffries took a fortune out of the defeat at Johnson's hands. He received 40 per cent. of the purse, amounting to $40,400, the bonus of $10,000 and he sold his picture interests for $66,666, making his total $117,000. The owners of the picture films are calculating on a million dollars profit.

Campaign Against Pictures.

Boston, July 5.—Declaring that Independence Day was dishonored by a brutal prize fight, that the moral sense of the Nation was outraged, but that this evil is nothing compared to the harm which will be done by allowing children and women to view the reproduction of the Jeffries-Johnson fight by moving pictures, William S. Shaw, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, in a formal statement tonight, announced the beginning of a campaign against the exhibition of these pictures.

Telegrams calling attention to the race riots which followed in the wake of the fight were dispatched tonight to former President Theradore Roosevelt, Goveronr Charles E. Hughes and velt, Governor Charles E. Hughes and York, asking their co-operation in the movement for the suppression of the pictures.

Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, will be seen tomorrow and asked to prevent the exhibitions in Boston. In a day or two telegrams will be sent to the Governors of all the States making a similar request.

Says Jack Will Quit.

Chicago, July 5.—Mrs. Tony Johnson, mother of Jack Johnson, tonight said that the champion pugilist would immediately retire from the ring.

"Arthur told me positively that he'd whip Jeffries," said Mrs. Johnson, "remove all possibility of the slightest dispute as to his right to the title and then quit fighting. He promised me this on his last night in Chicago, before he went to California to begin training. He said positively he would quit, and I expect he will."

Gate Receipts $270,775.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—Tex Rickard tonight gave out an official statement of receipts and attendance at the fight. It shows the total gate receipts totalled $270,775. Those that paid admissions numbered 15,760.

In addition to those who paid to see the fight, Rickard says there were 760 complimentary tickets given to the press and others. He estimated the number that slipped in at various places around the arena, behind holes in the boarding, or climbing to the rim of the structure at 1,500. All told the attendance is given at 18,020.

There were sold 1,258 seats at $50; 150 to $40; 634 at $30; 1,505 at $25; 1,457 at $20; 1,706 at $15 ,and 9,050 at $10.

The purse with the bonus given the two fighters amounted to $121,000 and Rickard figured that his experience at San Francisco cost him about $30,000. Thus, he and his partner Gleason will have a profit of about $120,000.

Crowds Greet Champion.

Ogden, Utah, July 5.—Jack Johnson was greeted by thousands of persons tonight when the train, to which his private car is attached, pulled into Ogden. Johnson appeared on the platform and, in response to cheering said: "Well, people, I turned the trick and I'm going back to Chicago to my old mammy. I went out there determined to turn the trick, and I had no trouble in doing it."

After shaking hands with a few friends, Johnson returned to the car and seated himself next to an open window beside his wife.

Three young roughs walked to the open car window and applying a vile epithet to Johnson in the presence of his wife, dared him to come to the platform. Johnson started to his feet, but one of his companions drew him down again. The rowdies rushed to the rear platform where one of them was met with a kick from the foot of one of Johnson's trainers and a mouthful of tobacco juice in the eyes. Officers rushed up and forced the crowd back.

The doors of the car were locked and the conductor waved the engineer to pull out. Several threats of shooting were made by the rough crowd that had gathered about the car, but no weapon was displayed.

In speaking of the fight, Johnson said that in the first few rounds, when he pushed Jeffries back several times, he felt that he was the master of the situation. The crisis of the fight was reached in the seventh round, said the champion. In this round, he landed an effective stomach punch followed by a blow to the jaw. He said that he knew then that Jeffries was at his mercy.

As a result of the occurrence at the union station tonight, the railroad officers placed two detectives on the train to accompany the champion to Omaha.

Johnson intends going direct to New York where he opens his theatre engagement Monday evening.

Telegraph Records Broken.

New York, July 5.—Officers of both the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies said tonight that the sending of fight news out of Reno yesterday broke all telegraph records for a single day's work. More than 800,000 words were sent at an average cost of two cents a word. The space given by seven New York newspapers was 121 1-4 columns and it is estimated that the papers in this city alone paid $6,000 in telegraph tolls.

No Pictures in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., July 5.—The Jeffries-Johnson prize fight pictures will be barred from Atlanta. This announcement was made tonight by Mayor Maddox. Tomorrow an ordinance prohibiting the presentation of moving pictures of prize fights will be introduced in city council and is expected to have little opposition.

Mayor Maddox said there would be danger of trouble between the races if the pictures were put on in Atlanta. "I sincerely hope the Reno fight is the last ever staged in the United States," he added. "The fight was unfortunate to say the least."

BLEACHED FLOUR CASES

Judge Instructs Jury In Federal Court. The Alsop Process.

Kansas City, July 5.—Judge Smith McPherson finished his instructions to the jury in the bleached flour cases in the Federal Court today and the jury went out tonight.

Judge McPherson in his charge to the jury said that it was stated in the Government's petition that on April 1, 1910, the Lexington Mill and Elevator Company of Lexington, Nebraska, shipped to B. C. Terry, a grocer at Castle, Mo., 625 sacks of flour. This flour was seized by the government. It was charged that the flour had been treated by the Alsop process of bleached, which consisted of the generation by means of electricity of nitrogen peroxide gas.

Judge McPherson said that the government charged that this process adulterated the flour, because nitrites and nitric reacting material were mixed with the flour because the gluten was impaired so as injuriously to affect the breadmaking qualities of the flour and that the bleaching concealed its inferiority.

The government charged that the flour seized as inferior to flour made from first quality hard wheat and that the Alsop bleaching process gave it the appearance of flour made from such wheat. It was charged that the flour was misbranded in that it was labeled as a fancy, patent flour when it was not a patent flour.

Judge McPherson said that the defendants in their answer admitted that the flour was bleached by the Alsop process, but denied that it was adulterated or misbranded.

Continuing, Judge McPherson said: "I charge you that if the treatment of the flour by the Alsop process resulted in any change in the capacity of the flour to change and improve as it would by natural processes that your finding must be for the government or that the flour was adulterated.

"I charge you that if you find from the evidence that the elasticity of the gluten is lessened or that the bread making quality of the flour is impaired, the flour was adulterated and you must find for the government."

Judge McPherson said that if the evidence showed that nitrites or nitric reacting materials had been mixed with the flour, the jury must find for the government.

"If bleaching makes flour appear better than it really is, you must find for the government," said Judge McPherson.

ATTACK MADE ON BAPTISTS.

Missionaries in Rome Had Trouble With Italians—Soldiers Aid.

Rome, July 5.—The American Ambassador, John G. A. Leischman has brought to the attention of the premier and the foreign office the situation arising from recent attacks made upon Baptist missionaries in the province of Avellino.

At the time of the earthquake in that district, early in June, James P. Stuart, of St. Louis, the representative of the American Board of Baptist missions in Italy, and other missionary workers were attacked by a mob and were escorted out of the district by a detachment of soldiers.

After a conference with Premier Luzzatti at Rome Mr. Stuart returned to the Avellino district, where another attack was made upon him and his companions. He telegraphed a statement of the affair to the American ambassador, who requested him to come to Rome. This Mr. Stuart did and he had a long conference with Ambassador Leischman today. To the ambassador he reported further details of the occurrence.

Arriving at the outskirts of the village near the town of Avellino, Mr. Stuart, accompanied by three other missionaries, was met by the chief of police, several constables and a dozen soldiers. A howling crowd of natives quickly surrounded the carriage. So demonstrative did they become that it was only with difficulty they could be restrained by force from doing the missionaries injury. On all sides arose the cry of "down with the Baptists," and a shower of stones fell about the carriage. Mr. Stuart was hit on the chest and the leg, while the chief of police was slightly wounded.

The soldiers with fixed bayonets formed a circle around the Americans and protected them to the entrance of the Baptist church. The mob, however, stoned the church from 4 until 10 o'clock at night, breaking all the windows, but doing no serious damage. Other soldiers were called to the scene and according to Mr. Stuart prevented a massacre by the infuriated Italians, who now numbered several thousand.

The besieged missionaries were obliged to remain in the church the whole night. Eventually Mr. Stuart succeeded in sending a telegram to the American Ambassador at Rome. The following day a detail of 400 soldiers was sent to the village and the missionaries were released from their dangerous position.

Both Premier Luzzatti and the foreign minister, Marquis di San Giuliano, have given assurances that measures will be taken immediately to prevent such disturbances in the future and also that an investigation of the entire matter will be made.

AT WACCAMAW LAKE.

Fourth of July Celebration and Baseball Game There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 5.—One of the largest crowds that ever attended the Fourth of July celebration at Lake Waccamaw was present yesterday. Of Columbus county people alone, there were over 5,000. The only happening to mar the pleasures of the day was a fisticuff, the participants being two or three drunken brawls. Promptly at 4 o'clock, after a slight practice by both teams, the baseball game between Waccamaw and the fast Whiteville team was called. DeVane was sent in to do the mounding for the Fishermen, while Green essayed the mound for the Champs. After scoring three runs on DeVane in the second, he gave way to Clark, the premier moundsman of the Davidson College team, who fared some better. The game was featured by Lumsden's catching, and Clark's hitting, he getting two of the four clean hits garnered off Green. A drizzling rain fell during most of the game. Score:

Whiteville .....130 100 110—7 8 3
Waccamaw .....000 101 220—6 4 8

Batteries: Green and Lumsden; DeVane, Clark and Council; two-base hits, Clark and Lumsden; struck out, by Green 10, by DeVane 2, by Clark 5; base on balls, off Green 1, off Clark 1; sacrifice hits, Oliver, Hasely; attendance 750; time 1:50; umpire, Smith.
